

About Arvato Systems

- Arvato Systems are part of Bertelsmann, offering customer solutions for the deployment, management and distribution of media

Their requirement

- Arvato has their own CDN platform but rapid growth in the gaming industry meant they needed a partner who could offer a cloud based service with greater scalability

Key reason for choosing Interoute:

- Scalability and flexibility of our Media Manager platform to deliver large volume of streams / downloads
- No capital infrastructure investment required
- Our competitive pricing and commercial terms

Our Solution:

- Media Manager generating over 450TBytes of traffic
